Detailed Action

This is the first Office Action corresponding to original filing. Claims 1-15 are active in the application.

Information Disclosure Statement

Receipt is acknowledged of Information Disclosure Statement filed Sep 18, 2003, which has been reviewed by the Examiner.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference character(s) mentioned in the description: 44 (see page 8, line 2 of the specification). Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

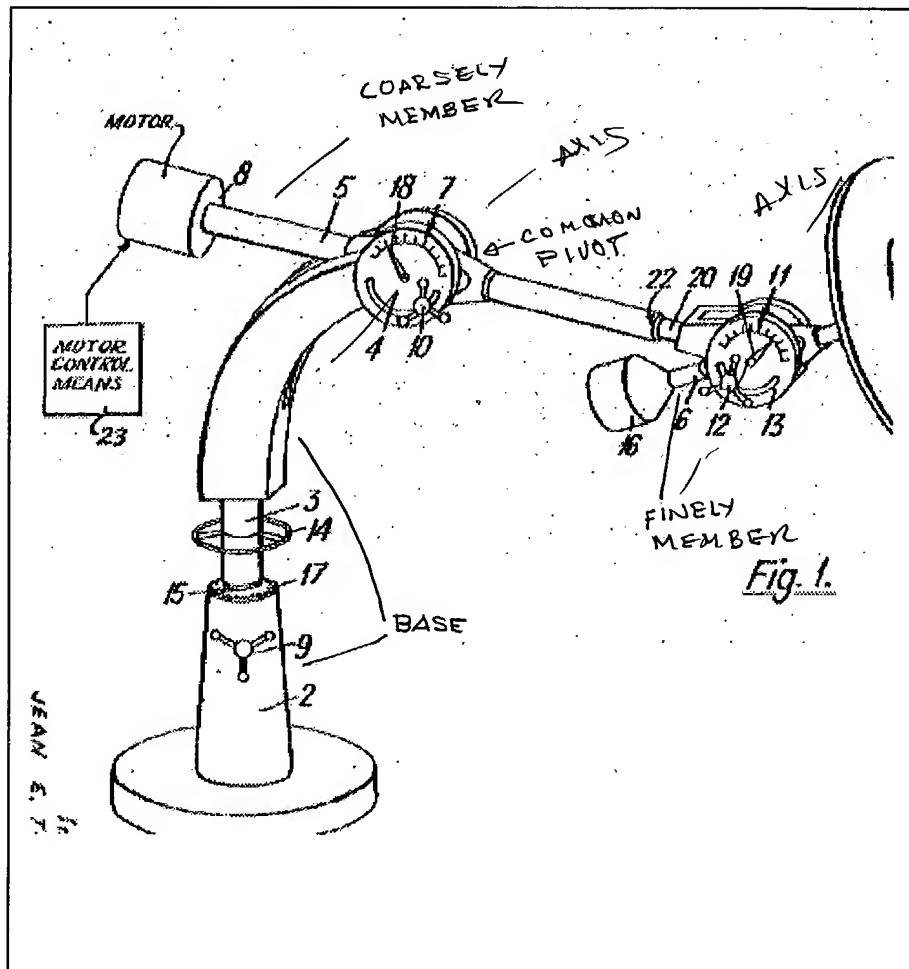

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by British Patent No 2,226,705.

The British patent shows at Fig 1, an antenna support comprising a pole (2) a base (1), coarsely adjustable support (3,5), and finely adjustable support (7). The coarsely support pivots relative to the base along a first axis defined by element 4, and the finely adjustable support pivots relative to coarsely support along a second axis defined by element 9; wherein both axes are in parallel orientation.

Claims 1 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Turriere (Pat No 3,510,877).

The patent to Turriere shows an antenna holder comprising a base member (2), coarsely adjustable support (5), and finely adjustable support (6). The coarsely support pivots relative to the base along a first axis, and the finely adjustable support pivots relative to coarsely support along a second axis; wherein both axes are in parallel orientation. The base member and the coarsely member are pivotally couple by common element.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-12, 14 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: none of the art of record discloses an antenna holder having a pair of each of the elements recited in claim 1; or an adjusting actuator, or an eccentric lever.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. European Patent No 268,125 and German Patent No 3,127,855 show other antenna holder of interest.
